IMPORTANT INSURANCE RULING

JEFFERSON COUNTY FARMER SHOT AND MORTALLY WOUNDED.

Death of Dr. T. C. Reade at Upland-Another Vote on Terre Haute Boycott-Accidents in the State.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LEBANON, Ind., July 25.-The legal fight between the Indianapolis, Lebanon & Frankfort Traction Company and the Lafayette & Indianapolis Rapid-railway Company for possession of the right of way from Lebanon east along the north side of the Big Four Railroad, has so far resulted in substantial victory for the former. The Lafayette company first surveyed the line and the Indianapolis company later surveyed the same route and proceeded to secure private grants from the landowners. The Lafayette company later instituted proceedings to condemn the land. The question arose in the course of the trial before Special Judge J. L. Clark, of Danville, as to whether the Lafayette company had made the proper effort to purchase the land previous to the filing of the instrument in appropriation. Nearly all the landowners along the route were brought into court to testify on this point. The court to-day rendered his decision, holding that in some cases the proper effort had been made, while in most cases it had not. According to the decision of the court the Indianapolis company is left in possession of all the right of way except four strips of land aggregating about In one of these cases Indianapolis company has asked a new trial. In all, the court order condemning eleven tracts of land, but only four of these affect the Indianapolis, Lebanon & Frankfort Company's right of way and in these cases the company proposes to build around the condemned land. Three commissioners were appointed to appraise the land that is to be

The case has been on trial for two weeks and it has been closely contested. George P. Haywood, of Lafayette, Ovid B. Jamiplaintiffs. Pierre Gray, of Indianapolis, and S. M. Ralston and S. R. Artman, of this city, appeared for the defense, The Indianapolis, Lebanon & Frankfort Traction Company has purchased a fiveacre tract of land within the city limits will erect the buildings this year. The remaining part, between St. Joseph and Catlin will be finished inside of a year.

IMPORTANT INSURANCE RULING.

Court Decides for Plaintiff in a Suit at Terre Haute.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 25.-Judge Piety, of the Circuit Court, ruled in favor of Mrs. Kate Kidder, widow of Edson Kidder, who died suddenly from an overdose of morphine several months ago, in her suit to compel the payment of $30,000 life insurance carried in the Northwestern Mutual of Milwaukee. The company had sent checks for the amount immediately after the death of Mr. Kidder, but creditors of D. C. He was a veteran of the Mexican the milling firm of Kidder & Son, whose insolvency then became known, notified the company to stop payment, as the creditors would set up a claim that the premiums were paid with the firm's money, to which the creditors were entitled. Most of these creditors were Eastern banks.

The creditors also asked to be made defendants in the suit brought by Mrs. Kidler, and the insurance company asked to be permitted to pay the money into court and be relieved of liability. Judge Piety ruled against both and gave judgment for Mrs. Kidder. The insurance company will give bond for $45,000 and appeal to the Su breme Court, and the foreign creditors, whose claims aggregate $100,000, have asked Judge Baker, of the United States Court, to transfer the case to the Federal Court.
